Mint maker aims to stop Santa halitosis

- ◆ A mint company is trying to prevent the dreaded Santa Claus halitosis by sending free mints to shopping mall Santas all over America.

Momints President Anthony Shurman says he did it out of parental concern.

- ◆ He has a young son who will be sitting on Santa's lap for the first time and Shurman doesn't want the kid to be suffocated by a Claus with bad breath.

- ◆ Santas seeking relief from "holiday halitosis" can send their resumes to feedback@momints.net.
