Take a Momint, and Be a Star!

Ever wonder why LEONARDO DICAPRIO and GISELLE BUNCHEN are constantly smooching? Maybe it's love, but I'll bet Leo can't get enough of Giselle's minty fresh breath, thanks to the new "mint of the moment," Momints. These tiny, liquid-filled breath mints are a hit with the Hollywood crowd, and not just because they banish bad breath from air kisses. Momints' Peppermint, Cinnamon, and Winter Burst flavors boast a fitness-friendly zero calories and zero carbs. Plus, the packaging is so slender, it fits discreetly in any designer jean pocket -- perfect for the health-conscious fashionista! And Giselle isn't the only A-list celeb with fresh breath -- CAMERON DIAZ, NAOMI WATTS, and MARY J. BLIGE all pop the refreshing mint, as does my future husband, JUDE LAW. Once he clues me in firsthand on how kissably fresh Momints makes his breath, I'll be sure to let you all know. Momints retail for $1.69, and are available at 7-11, CVS, and Wawa.
